

The Scottish Jewish Archives Centre is delighted to announce that it is recruiting for an Archivist
to take forward the professionalisation of SJAC and contribute to its ongoing development.

This is a fixed term three-year grant funded part-time post.

Location: The post holder will be based in the Scottish Jewish Archives Centre in Garnethill Synagogue, Glasgow.

Salary: £21,000 (pro-rata three days a week based on full-time salary of £35,000). Salary will be subject to review on the anniversary of the start date.

Closing date: 1 November 2024

Hours: Part-time, three days a week.

Interview date for those shortlisted: 25 November 2024

Start Date: Beginning of February 2025

We are seeking a professionally qualified and experienced archivist with experience of working in the archive or record keeping sector who is enthusiastic about community-based archives.

For the full role description and to apply for the post, please email: info@sjac.org.uk

Scottish Jewish Archives Centre, Garnethill Synagogue, 129 Hill Street, Glasgow
G3 6UB

Director Harvey Kaplan Email: info@sjac.org.uk Web: www.sjac.org.uk

The Scottish Jewish Archives Centre is a national heritage, information, and research centre that documents, collects and researches the history of Jews in Scotland since the 17th century.

Scottish Charity: SCO 30542